

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD POLICY

1. The Library Community Bulletin Board is to be used for the posting of notices of:
 - a) Library business or activities and
 - b) Public service items of educational or cultural interest to the community.
 - c) Non-profit organizational announcements

2. Any notice to be considered for posting must be submitted to Library management for approval. Only authorized library staff may post notices on the Library bulletin board.

Notices posted without authorization will be removed.

3. The community bulletin board is not to be used for commercial notices.

4. Notices may be removed after two weeks, when they are no longer timely or when space is required for more current notices.

5. The Library does not necessarily advocate or endorse the viewpoints of organizations permitted to post notices on the Library community bulletin board. The Library accepts no responsibility for loss or damage to any item posted on the community bulletin board.

Failure to comply with these rules may result in denial of future posting privileges.

This policy is determined by the Library Board of Trustees and is subject to periodic review and/or revision at the discretion of the Board. Appeals may be submitted to the Board in writing.
